Hi,

Well they tell me that the seasons are changing, spring is here, and summer is on the way. I am not so sure about the spring bit but am certainly looking forward to the summer.

We all go through different seasons in life; some are good and some not so good. As we read in Ecclesiastes 3 “there is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven.”

There is this chap in scripture maybe you have heard of him, Elisha. There was certainly nothing glamorous about his life when he first appears in scripture, he is a guy just ploughing a field. That is until Elijah rocks up and without a word to Elisha, he just goes up to him and throws his cloak around him and continues to walk away. What does Elisha do, he burns his plough, barbeques his oxen and throws a party and moves of into a new adventure, a new season in his life.

Mike and Pam Lewis have over the years faithfully cared for and served the congregations of this circuit. Now they too are starting a new season in their lives and we as a circuit say thank you to both of you, for your commitment, friendship, care and patience with us all. May this new season be filled with joy, love and peace and like Elisha, be a new adventure with loads of Godly surprises.

Mike and Pam have passed their cloak onto Mark and Sheridan, who also will be starting a new season in their lives. I pray that as circuit we will encourage and support them. May we be courageous and face this new season standing together, shoulder to shoulder, as the Jews did under Nehemiah when they rebuilt the walls around Jerusalem. May God give us the eyes of faith to see God opportunities all around us.

Be strong and be courageous and may God rend the heavens and come down and do awesome things that no one expects.

God bless,
Barry Allen
