Dear Friends,

This preaching plan will take us through Lent and then into Easter. The seasons of our Church calendar remind us of the momentous things that happened to the life of Jesus, but I have been reflecting on the way in which we do this recently. One thing that I've not dwelt on previously is the rather strange way in which the thirty-three year life of the Lord is continually compressed into twelve months! We go from the birth to the death in just over four months, and this has left me with the (very obvious!) thought - there's so much more to consider in the life of Jesus! What is called the public ministry of Jesus is thought to be about three years, and with our three year cycle of readings we do get more of a chance to reflect on his teaching and healing work over a slightly longer period, but even so, I'm left dwelling on the fact - there's so much more to Jesus.

That's not just a practical observation regarding the vagaries of the Revised Common Lectionary of course, it is perhaps more of a theological statement. There's more to Jesus, mainly because his influence was not simply limited to three years when we hear it recorded, or even the thirty-three years of his earthly days, but of course because he lives on, and his ongoing life becomes part of our lives. Not only our lives but the lives of every generation... or it can be... if we recognise Christ living today. Let us worship our living Lord as we celebrate this Easter once again.

With every blessing, Mark
