Dear Friends,

Some of you will know I recently performed in a concert version of Chess: The Musical. It was a considerable challenge, as I had to learn a number of songs which were previously unknown to me. I found it very hard to learn a new song and in particular the words! This is partly because I've rarely had to sing things from memory, with no words in front of me before, but also the fact that the 'new' always seems like a challenge.

In Psalm 40 the Psalmist says that: The Lord put a new song in my mouth; a hymn of praise to almighty God. I've been dwelling on those words recently...

The reason for the new song is because the writer has been 'lifted from a slimy pit' and instead feet are now 'on solid ground'. The change in circumstances has inspired the Psalm. Things are so different that a whole new song is needed.

Change is not always easy to embrace, but sometimes we can't help but be overwhelmed when things in life change from uncertain to stable. Let's pray that we too will feel inspired to sing a new song in our hearts as we appreciate the life-changing love of God, in our lives and in our world.

With blessings upon all we bring to God in worship, through the services of this preaching plan,

Mark
